1. INTRODUCTION

- a) Ministry of Electronics & Information Technology (MeitY) has notified “Electronics and Information Technology Goods (Requirement for Compulsory Registration) Order, 2012 (CRO)” on 03rd Oct. 2012 mandating Indian safety standards under the Compulsory Registration Scheme of Department of Consumer Affairs (DoCA). The products under CRO are covered in phased manner. Presently 44 product categories are covered in the CRO and the Order has come into effect for all 44 product categories. As per the provisions of the CRO, for the notified goods the manufacturer has to seek registration from BIS based on testing of the product at the BIS recognized lab before sale/import in India.
- b) The Order applies equally to Domestic and Overseas manufacturers for sale into Indian markets. The Order provides that sub-standard/non-compliant notified goods shall be deformed beyond use. It has been observed that Indian markets are flooded by unregistered/repaired/refurbished/second MFDs (Multi-function Devices) which are being imported from various countries.
- c) The Printers and Photocopiers are also covered under CRO. The MFDs are basically printers with additional features.
- d) The purpose of this Expression of Interest (Eoi) is, therefore, to seek the services of a reputed organization to carry-out a study to evaluate the impact of business of second hand MFDs. Also to study the new/second hand MFDs being imported in the country, the employment generated on account of these MFDs, need for MFDs especially second hand MFDs in the era of digital India.
- e) Survey may be scattered to cosmopolitan cities, rural areas & Direct Sellers.
